Understanding on Cooperation against Trafficking in Person in the Greater Mekong Sub-Region approved in Yangon of Myanmar on 29 October 2004, the Joint Declaration on the Coordinated Mekong Ministerial Initiative against Trafficking approved in Beijing of China on 14 December 2007, the Guiding Principles for the Protection of Victims of Trafficking in the Greater Mekong Sub-region on 22-24 August 2007 and the 2nd COMMIT Joint Declaration in Hanoi of Viet Nam on 16 February 2012;

RECALLING the Agreed Minutes of the Third Meeting of the Joint Commission for the Bilateral Cooperation between the Kingdom of Cambodia and the Kingdom of Thailand, in Siem Reap Province of the Kingdom of Cambodia, during 31 January – 1 February 2000 with regards to the intensification of cooperation in suppression cross border trafficking in human beings, especially in women and children, the Agreed Minutes of the Meeting on Guidelines on Repatriation and Reintegration in Bangkok of the Kingdom of Thailand on 27-29 October 2005, Guidelines for Cooperation Between Cambodia and Thailand on the Criminal Justice Process of Trafficked Related Crimes in Siem Reap Province of the Kingdom of Cambodia on July 21, 2006, and the Agreed Minutes of the Fifth Ministerial Meeting on the Implementation of the Memorandum of Understanding on Cooperation in Employment of Workers between the Ministry of Labour and Vocational Training of the Kingdom of Cambodia and the Ministry of Labour of the Kingdom of Thailand in Siem Reap on January 24-26, 2012;

REFERRING to relevant provisions concerning trafficking in persons as stipulated in Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, Supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, the Convention on the Rights of the Child, the Optional Protocols on the Sale of Children, Child Prostitution and Child Pornography and on the Involvement of Children in Armed Conflict, ILO Convention No.182 Concerning the Elimination of the Worst Forms of Child Labour, ILO Convention No. 29 on Forced Labour, the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women and other international human rights instruments to which both Parties are party;

CONVINCED that suppressing the crime of trafficking in persons through mutual cooperation in law enforcement and criminal procedures is an effective measure to ensure justice against human trafficking;

PLEDGING that the Parties shall faithfully cooperate to eliminate trafficking in persons, and to protect and assist them;

HAVE AGREED as follows:
I- SCOPE OF THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Article 1:

This Memorandum of Understanding shall apply to trafficking in persons as defined in Article 2 of this Memorandum.

II- DEFINITION

Article 2:

For the operational purpose of this memorandum,

(a) “Trafficking in Persons” shall mean the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring or receipt of persons, by means of threat, use of force, or other forms of coercion, of abduction, of fraud, of deception, of the abuse of power or of a position of vulnerability or of the giving or receiving of payments or benefits to achieve the consent of a person having control over another person, for the purpose of exploitation. Exploitation shall include, at a minimum, the exploitation of the prostitution of others or other forms of sexual exploitation, forced labour or services, slavery or practices similar to slavery, servitude or the removal of organs;

(b) The consent of a victim of trafficking in persons to the intended exploitation set forth in subparagraph (a) of this article shall be irrelevant where any of the means set forth in subparagraph (a) have been used;

(c) A child who has been recruited, transported, transferred, or haboured for the purpose of exploitation shall be considered “as a victim of trafficking” even if this does not involve any of the means set forth in subparagraph (a) of this article; and

(d) “Child” shall mean any person under eighteen years of age.

III- PREVENTIVE MEASURES

Article 3:

The Parties shall undertake necessary legal reforms and other appropriate measures to ensure that the legal frameworks in their respective jurisdictions conform with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the Protocol to Prevent, Suppress, and Punish Trafficking in Persons, especially Women and Children, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, and other international and regional instruments concerning trafficking in persons to which both Parties are party.

Article 4:

The Parties shall undertake educational and vocational training programs tailored for children, women and men to increase the opportunity for employment and hence reduce vulnerability to trafficking.
Article 5:

Both Parties shall make best efforts to prevent trafficking in persons through the following preventive measures:

(a) Increase of social services and protection such as assistance in job searching and income generating and provision of medical care to persons vulnerable to trafficking;

(b) Reform of educational and vocational training programs to improve their linkage with education and job opportunities; and

(c) Enhancement of public awareness and understanding on the issue of safe migration and trafficking in persons, especially children and women including:

(i.) Disseminate information to the public on risk factors of migration and the danger and negative impacts of trafficking in persons;

(ii.) Support the development of community protection and surveillance networks, especially in high risk areas;

(iii.) Strengthen cooperation between the Parties and the private sectors to expand their role in the fight against trafficking in persons.

IV- PROTECTION OF TRAFFICKED PERSONS

Article 6:

Trafficked persons shall be considered victims, not violators or offenders of the immigration law. Therefore,

(a) Trafficked persons shall not be prosecuted for illegal entry to the country;

(b) Trafficked persons shall not be detained in an immigration detention center during the times awaiting the official repatriation process, but shall be put under the care of the Ministry of Social Affairs, Veterans and Youth Rehabilitation (Cambodia) or the Department of Social Development and Welfare (Thailand), and shelter and protection shall be provided to the victims according to the policy of each state;

(c) The relevant authorities shall ensure the security of trafficked persons and their families;

(d) Victims shall be treated humanely and provided with opportunity to communicate with their immediate families where it is safe to do so throughout the process of protection and repatriation, and the judicial proceedings;

(e) Victims, especially children, shall be provided rights based, age and gender sensitive services during the interim care, repatriation, reintegration and judicial processes; and

(f) Children accompanying victims shall be entitled to the protection in accordance with the national laws of each Party.

Article 7:

The Parties shall undertake appropriate measures, which may include legal reform and legal aid, to ensure the effective legal remedies to victims of trafficking as follows:

(a) Victims may claim restitution of any undisputed personal properties and belongings that have been confiscated or obtained by relevant authorities at any stage of the legal process;
(b) Proceeds of crime of trafficking shall be liable for confiscation and managed according to the laws of relevant country;
(c) Victims may claim compensation and restitution from the offender of any damages caused by trafficking in persons;
(d) Victims may claim payment for unpaid services from the offender; and
(e) Victims shall have access to the due process of law to claim for criminal justice, recovery of damages, and any other judicial remedies; and
(f) Victims shall be provided information and interpretive services from the intake process until reintegration.

Article 8:

The relevant Governmental agencies in cooperation with appropriate non-governmental organizations, shall provide trafficked persons and their immediate family, if any, with gender sensitive safe shelter and health care, including psycho-social support, access to legal assistance, and other imperatives for their protection.

V- COOPERATION IN SUPPRESSION OF TRAFFICKING IN PERSONS

Article 9:
